Call for Papers

The Director, Institute of Kashmir Studies is pleased to announce that the Journal of Kashmir Studies is now accepting contributions for its 2021 Issue. The issue is aimed at exploring Kashmir's social, cultural, and religious diversity, and heritage. This call is allied to the aims of promotion of the study of rich diversity, heritage, and culture in India, as earmarked by the NEP, 2020, and follows the key thrust areas of the Institute which concern study of Kashmir's society, composite culture, philosophy, heritage, history and tradition.

For this issue, the Institute seeks full-length articles from across Social Sciences and Humanities which relate to any of the following themes:

- Ethnicity, Tribe, Caste, Gender and Class
- Social and Religious Practices
- Linguistic Diversity and its role in Plural Society
- Ethnographies of Rural and Urban Settings, Globalisation and Change
- Tangible and Intangible Heritage: Monuments, Artifacts, Local Crafts, Oral Traditions, performing arts, etc
- Indigenous Knowledge and its Preservations
- Folk and Folk Media

The themes are not exhaustive, and the Journal is open to papers across various disciplines including Area Studies, Sociology, Social Anthropology, History, Political Science, Area Studies, Media and Cultural Studies, Languages, etc. The Journal of Kashmir Studies is multi-lingual and has published articles in English, Hindi, Urdu, and Kashmiri. The papers submitted to the journal will be subject to rigorous peer review.

In 2020, the Journal was digitized and its entire collection is available on jks.uok.edu.in and the Institute website at iks.uok.edu.in.

The necessary guidelines are as under:

- Line Spacing: 1.5
- Last Date: November 30, 2021
- Submission Email ID: kashmirstudies@kashmiruniversity.ac.in, directoriksku@gmail.com

Detailed Guidelines:

- Only articles which have not been published earlier will be considered for publication. The author(s) will have to provide a signed undertaking on a separate page with the following text "The Article titled _____ is written by _____. It is an original work of the author(s) and has not been submitted to any other publication."
- Articles should only be submitted as MS Word attachments, in doc or docx format.
- For in-text referencing, follow the author-date method of citation, for example: (Gupta 2001). In case of more than one reference by an author, the years of publication should be separated by comma (Srivastava 2006, 2007).
- The page numbers should be mentioned after a colon (Srinivas 1986: 346). In case of more than one page number use a hyphen to separate the numbers (Showkat 2012: 264-65).
- If more than one reference together, then the chronological ordering is to be followed (Alex 1993; Corey 1998; Bhat 2000).
- In case of co-authorship by two authors, both names should be cited (Samadhar and Jha 2020). For three or more authors, 'et al' should be used (Bhat et al 2008).
- Use Ibid., if an author's name is repeated within the paragraph, with the page number (ibid.: 64).
- In case of reports, state the organisation's/institution's name (Government of India 2008) for the first time. For subsequent use, abbreviation may be used (GOI 2008).
- At the end of the article, the References section should have the following details:
 - (i) Articles: Author name(s); publication year; title of the article (within single inverted commas); the name of the journal (italicised); volume number, the issue number, and the beginning and ending page numbers,
 - (ii) Chapter in an edited work: Author name(s); publication year; title of the chapter (within single inverted commas); the name(s) of the editor(s)/compiler(s); title of the book (italicised); the beginning and ending page numbers of the chapter, place of publication; and the name of the publisher,
 - (iii) Book: author name(s); publication year; title of the book (italicised); place of publication; and the name of the publisher. The listing in References must follow the alphabetical order of the last name of the (first) author
 - Place the Tables, charts, maps, figures, etc. at the end of the article, with serial numbering, e.g., Table 3, Figure 1.
 - Cite sentences or words taken from other works with single quotation marks.
 - Quotations exceeding 50 words should be separated from the text and indented on the left.
 - Only use British/UK spellings.
 - Write numerals between one and ninety-nine in words, and 100 and above in figures. However, the following are to be in figures only: distance: 5 km; age: 73 years old; percentage: 45 per cent; and years: 1880s.
