Title of PhD: A study of the changing patterns of Kashmiri short story

Short Summary (300-400 words):

The purpose of this study is to explore the changing patterns of Kashmiri short story. Actually Kashmiri short story has developed a lot in technique and thematic aspects till this time in the same way as this genre at globally scenario. Kashmiri writers used simple technique in the beginning but with the passage of time they have used symbolic, abstract, mythological, allegorical, and soliloquy techniques as well. Since at thematic level technology and modern sensibility brought outstanding changes in overall human life and so in literature that has equally affected Kashmiri writers also this change is quite evident in Kashmiri short fiction. Prevailing this time. Now my proposed research study is based on the detailed discussion regarding the changing patterns of Kashmiri short story.
